Lieutenant F. Desai, Deputy Examiner.
Declining to sanction the allowance applied for by —

Madras

1st May 1878.

To,

Major Conway Gordon R. E.
Examiner. P. Wks. Accounts.
Madras.

Sir,

It is with great reluctance that I beg to place the following application before you, with a request that you will be so good as to submit it for the favorable consideration of Government.

I am most unwilling to occupy the time of Government in any personal matter, but I do not think that, on perusal, my reasons for doing so will be thought inadequate.

As you are aware my transfer to this Presidency brought me no promotion, on the contrary, inasmuch as the presidency allowance drawn by Public Works officers in Bombay has not been extended to Madras, I find that I am a loser by Rs 100 a month.

I have hesitated to bring this to your notice until now, under the impression that a better acquaintance with Madras might shew it to be a less expensive place than Bombay.

This however does not prove to be the

the case: the actual cost of living is quite as high, while a carriage, which is a luxury in Bombay, is a necessity here, when I am unable to live near my office.

I have therefore the honor most respectfully to solicit, that Government will, after taking these facts into consideration, be pleased to grant me the same indulgence as was extended to the late Mr. J. Mills, Deputy Examiner Public Works Accounts; namely, an extra allowance of Rs 100 a month required to make up my salary to its former amount of Rs 705, and I do this with all the more confidence that I feel sure that the Government of India did not intend me to be a sufferer ^{by my transfer} to this Presidency.

Again, apologizing for the subject of this letter.

I have &c.
