No 229. Endorsement of the District Engineer, Presidency, dated 9th July 1878, No 2,113

From G. H FAULKNER, Esq, Executive Engineer in charge of Public Works Stores and Workshops, to the District Engineer, Presidency, dated Madras, 5th July 1878, No 449

I HAVE the honor to enclose copy of letter No 75, dated 29th June 1878, from the Superintendent, Madras Harbour Works, stating that the points and crossings included in his indent on England, dated 8th November 1877, have been obtained from the Madras Railway Company

2 In compliance with G O, dated 20th November 1877, No 1,732 W, an emergent indent was prepared and forwarded with my letter, No. 1,073, dated 1st December 1877, in which four sets of points and crossings were included which the Superintendent does not now require I beg, therefore, that the Government may be moved to cancel so much of the indent on the Home Government

3 Mr Thorowgood states that he has already written to Mr Parkes on the subject, but he does not give the date of his communication

4 In the bi-monthly return of stores, received from England, made up to 28th February 1878, a note is affixed, "Supply suspended pending further information from Madras," and it is probable that the Director-General of Stores, London, is awaiting instructions from Government for cancelling the supply
