ADVISING to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No 1,267, dated 11th May 1878, I have the honor to report that the Deputy Tahsildar of Venkatagiri did not submit schedules of famine expenditure referred to by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts because no relief works were carried on by him in the division from September 1877 from Department Public Works funds Nil returns were, however, subsequently submitted by the Deputy Tahsildar to the Examiner in obedience to his instructions.

2 The Tahsildar of Atmakur explains that the delay in the submission of the accounts referred to was owing to the pressure of work and to some of the subordinates having fallen ill. The circumstances known to me make this explanation satis-
