No. 22.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd August 1878, No. 3,105 W.

THE estimates and plans of the Buckingham Canal are reported to be on their way to Madras. Orders will therefore be passed upon them before long.

2. Of the four last items in the statement, estimates for the first three were in March last reported to be nearly ready, and the estimate for the Ethamakkala road under preparation—vide the statement recorded with G.O., No. 1,027, dated 30th April 1878, in the Revenue Famine Department. It is not therefore apparent why they should not before now have been received. The District Engineer, Nellore, will have them completed and forwarded for sanction at the earliest practicable date, meanwhile reporting in what state of progress they now are.
