(1) Referring to Chief Engineer's memorandum No. 1707 received with your No. 544 of 17th March, I beg again respectfully to state that I always have a sub-divisional allowance in Bengal of Rs. 30/- per month and that this is granted to every sub-divisional holding charge of a Sub-division up to the 1st grade Sub-Engineer. I am therefore humbly that Government intend that I should have this money.

(13) In the Store of George Gauth of February last my services were replaced at the disposal of the Government of India. Seeing that I sold all my furniture & when to my surprise I was re-employment to the District

(H) Since I have been transferred from Bengal to this Presidency, I have been put to considerable expence.

(5) I have a ~~deputation~~ allowance of Rs 75/- a month; but if the Indicimental allowance be not granted my deputation allowance only means Rs 45/- a month and what is allowed to an Overseer.

(6) City Clerk. I give again notice and beg most respectfully that the case be laid before the Government of India. I shall also be very thankful to be sent back to my own Presidency as soon as I can.
