From

To
The Quarter Master General

Sir,

In forwarding for the approval and sanction of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying Plan, Report & Estimate R^o 2758/- for the construction of a new Cook-house for the use of the Battery at this Station, I have the honor to report as follows.

x not recd in Recd Office 28/7/78

2. The present Cook rooms N^o 1 & 2 which are under one roof, were built in 1862, and are of the class of building termed "temporary", and although from time to time repaired, have gradually been falling into a bad condition for the past few years. The District Engineer in the beginning of June, reported that the roof which is a sloping terrace had given way, the ridge beam, of N^o 1 room especially having sunk considerably, and as it was considered unsafe, it was found necessary to close that portion of the building. The walls also are much cracked, so that the Engineer considers it requisite a new building should be constructed. In the mean time the Battery, at considerable inconvenience is using for cooking purposes, N^o 2 Cookroom, which is not in quite so bad a condition as N^o 1, and a small Cookroom attached to the Sergeants' Mess.

3. The plan for a new Cook-house is the same as that of the cook house attached to the British Infantry Barracks, except that three fire places with iron gratings have been provided for, instead of two, as the strength of the Battery in single men is considerably above that of a Company of Infantry.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient Servant
