* G O, 11th June 1878, No 2,458 W ing of school-houses for the Native Army, I have the honor, in accordance with paragraph 3 of G O, 12th July 1877, No. 409 W, to submit a plan for the school-house ordered to be built at Pallavaram.

2 This plan differs from the original standard plan in having one of the wings lopped off, the remainder of the building slightly enlarged, and in having two doors in rear of the building covered with open verandahs

3 These alterations have been found necessary from experience gained in the school-room built on the original standard plan at Bangalore.

4 I would suggest that, for the purposes of ventilation, there should be a ventilator in the ridge

5 The doors at the back are for the pupils to enter at, and the two small verandahs for umbrellas, shoes, &c., to be left under

No 101 ORDER THEREON, 6th September 1878, No. 3,556 W.

The proposed deviations from the original standard plan are approved. But before according formal sanction the Government desire to have a regular estimate and specification drawn up by the Superintending Engineer, Chingleput.

2 It is observed that no standard plan, properly so called, is in force, the Government having in the marginal order decided that it would be impossible to devise one which would be suitable for all parts of the Presidency.
