RESOLUTION.—By the Government of India, Financial Department.

Read again—

Resolution of the Government of India, Financial Department, No. 2523, dated 26th September 1865, containing rules regarding allowances to Uncovenanted Officers who are suspended pending enquiry into their conduct.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to revoke the Resolution now read again, and to prescribe the following Rules to regulate the allowances while out of employ, of an Uncovenanted Officer dismissed from office, or suspended from office as a penalty for misconduct or pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct:—

I.—Saving as provided in Rule III (ii), the salary of an officer who is dismissed, ceases absolutely from the date of his dismissal: no allowances may be granted to him for any period occupied in his prosecution of appeals against the order dismissing him.

II.—Saving as provided in Rule III (ii), an officer suspended from office as a penalty for misconduct, is entitled to no salary while he is absent from duty.

III.—Subject to the proviso that, without the permission of the Local Government, no expenditure in excess of what would have taken place if the officer had remained on duty, may be incurred—

- (i) Subsistence allowance, at a rate not exceeding one-quarter of his salary, may be granted by the authority suspending him, to an officer removed from office pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct: Provided that, if the officer is a European, his subsistence allowance should not commonly be less than Rs. 25 a month if his salary be less than Rs. 100 a month, the rate may be increased accordingly.

NOTE.—The subsistence allowance is authorised as a matter of grace only, and cannot be claimed as of right.

- (ii) If the suspension of an officer as a penalty for misconduct is, upon reconsideration or appeal, held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable, or if an officer dismissed from office or suspended pending enquiry into his alleged misconduct is, after enquiry, or upon reconsideration or appeal, reinstated, then the revising or appellate authority may grant to the officer, for the period of his absence from duty—

(i) Subsistence allowance, at a rate not exceeding one-quarter of his salary, may be granted by the authority suspending him, to an officer removed from office pending inquiry into his alleged misconduct: Provided that, if the officer is a European, his subsistence allowance should not commonly be less than Rupees 25 a-month: if his salary be less than Rupees 100 a-month, the rate may be increased accordingly.

NOTE.—The subsistence allowance is authorized as a matter of grace only, and cannot be claimed as of right.

(ii) If the suspension of an officer as a penalty for misconduct is, upon reconsideration or appeal, held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable, or if an officer dismissed from office or suspended pending inquiry into his alleged misconduct is, after inquiry, or upon reconsideration or appeal, reinstated, then the revising or appellate authority may grant to the officer, for the period of his absence from duty—

- (1) if the officer is honorably acquitted—full salary;
- (2) otherwise, such portion of his salary as to the revising or appellate authority may seem expedient.
