(Signed) A. B. SAMPSON,
Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Irrigation Branch.

From Colonel H. K. BURNE, C.B., Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Military Department, dated 6th September 1878, No. 197 S.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your docket No. 1,369, dated the 25th March 1878, submitting applications from Colonel J. H. Reid and Lieutenant-Colonel C. Lucas, Royal (late Bombay) Artillery, for a reconsideration of the ruling conveyed in my letter, No. 606, dated the 12th December 1877, under which they, in common with other officers, have, in consequence of their having received money on exchange, been debarred from electing for local service.

2. In reply, I am to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council sees no sufficient grounds for relaxing the rule in their favor, or for differing from the opinion already expressed, which was arrived at after careful consideration.

3. Under these circumstances, and as both the officers received money on exchange, they have virtually committed themselves to general service, and are, therefore, precluded from electing for local service.

4. In accordance with the above decision, I am to state, with reference to the inquiry submitted under cover of your docket No. 1,565, dated the 5th April 1878, and in modification of my letter, No. 1,138, dated the 25th February last, that Lieutenant-Colonel Lucas is not entitled to six months' Indian pay and allowances on sick leave, admissible under the furlough rules of 1854.

5. I am to add that this reply also disposes of the reference in the case of Major H. W. Stockley, Royal (late Bombay) Artillery, forwarded with your docket No. 2,246, dated the 4th May 1878, and who, apparently, is similarly circumstanced to Lieutenant-Colonel Lucas.
