Furlough Rules of 1868.

Certified that Major J. W. Hindle, Staff
Corps Executive Engineer 2^d Grade has no furlough at his credit and is under the Furlough Rules of 1868.

Major Hindle is not eligible for furlough on "furlough pay" on private affairs
but to medical certificate for the period recommended on "English furlough pay".

But no pay can be granted to Major Hindle under any circumstances after he has been three years absent.

Copy of letter No 716x dated 24th in August 1878 from the Examiner of P. W. Accounts Madras to the Adjutant General Madras.

From the Furlough Certificate No 3701 of 15th July 1878 furnished by you on behalf of Major J. W. Hindle S. G., it would appear that that Officer is eligible to furlough on Medical Certificate for two years with an extension of one year on English Furlough pay, or in all 3 years on English Furlough pay.

2. According to the Memo of leave noted on the reverse of the certificate above referred to, Major Hindle has already had furlough to the extent of 6 years 10 months and 24 days, this period added to the three years furlough above referred to would amount to 9 years 10 months and 24 days, or 1 year 10 months and 24 days in excess of the aggregate amount of furlough (8 years) admissible to an officer with pay under Rule XVI of the furlough Regulations of 1868.

3. I shall therefore be obliged by your informing whether Major Hindle is entitled to the present leave on English Furlough pay to the full extent i.e. 3 years certified by you and if so to refer me to the rule under which he is entitled.

to

4. From the information available in this office it would appear that Major Hindle had furlough with pay to the extent of 2 years, 11 months and 6 days as shown in the margin.

Furlough on Medical Certificate	from 4 th March 1871 to 10 th April 1872	1-11-6
Furlough on Private Affairs	from 16 th Dec 1870 to 17 th April 1871	1-4-2
Furlough in India	from 25 th July to 11 th August 1877 on English furlough pay vide Fort Saint George Gazette dated 10 th Sept 1877. Part I. Page 570	1-11-6 months from 10th April to 17th June 1877. But it is not known for what portion of the 3 years, 11 months and 9 days Furlough which was granted to Major Hindle when he was in the Military Department was with pay, and what portion without Allowances. Information on this point is solicited.

5. An early reply to this reference is requested.

Copy of letter No 1700, dated 27th August 1878 from the Adjutant General Madras to the Examiner of P. & A. Accounts Madras.

No 7163 dated 20th Aug 1878
No 3701 dated 10th July 1878

In reply to your letter marginally quoted, I have the honor, by order, to state that this Office docket certified as under:
1st That Major Hindle had no furlough at credit and was under the Furlough Rules of 1868.

2nd That Major Hindle was not eligible for furlough on "furlough pay" on private affairs but to medical certificate for the period recommended on "English furlough pay."

3rd That no pay could be granted to Major Hindle under any circumstances after he had been 3 years absent.

2. Major Hindle's health having necessitated his taking furlough within 3 years from the date of his last return to this country, he was correctly recommended to Government for furlough to Europe on medical certificate for two years under Rule XIV of the Regulations of 1868.

Questions

3. Questions relative to pay and allowances drawn by Officers, when on furlough, do not come within the province of the Adjutant General's Department, but rather in that of the Pay Department to determine.
