Read the following paper:—

No. 113. From Colonel C. POLLARD, R.E., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Military Works), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 22nd October 1878, Circular No. 90 P.W.

I AM directed to forward, for information and guidance, a sheet of diagrams showing the school accommodation sanctioned for the different branches of the service, and to state that the plans embrace only the main apartments of the school, viz., those required for actual instruction, and that the subsidiary apartments such as book rooms, hat and cloak rooms, &c., are intended to be provided by enclosing such portions of verandahs as may be necessary to afford the requisite accommodation.

2. Further, I am to add, the school should not be in the immediate vicinity of a canteen, sergeants' mess, band quarters, or recreation-room, and in all schools having accommodation for girls and infants, the latrine for the men and elder boys should be separate from that intended for the female scholars and infants.
