(Signed) A. B. SAMPSON,
Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.

From Colonel H. K. BURNE, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of the Punjab, Public Works Department, Irrigation Branch, dated 30th October 1878, No. 1,136 S.

Retirements.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 6313 A--I, dated the 21st October 1878, requesting, with reference to the G.G.O., No. 981, of 1878. Royal Warrant of the 6th September 1878, certain information in regard to pension and extra-annuity.

2. The inquiries referred to the Government of India are—

- (1) whether furlough, on private affairs, or on medical certificate, in excess of the periods allowed to count for pension, reckons towards the time specified in Article 117a as qualifying for the annuities described in Article 117b;
- (2) if the furlough exceeds the limit for which an officer is eligible, viz., two years after eight years' service, three after fourteen years' service, and so on, does it reckon towards the extra-annuity?
- (3) can a Major who has served seven years from the date of his promotion to Captain, and who has not less than twenty years' service (above the age of twenty), retire on a Captain's pension and extra-annuity?
- (4) similarly, with other ranks, and specially can a General Officer, who has served for five years since his promotion to Colonel, retire on Colonel's pension with the extra-annuity after the 1st January 1879?

2 PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT, 11TH DECEMBER 1878, No. 4,729 W.

(5) is time spent on furlough on private affairs, or on medical certificate, "full-pay service"—

(a) on Indian furlough allowances;

(b) on English furlough pay.

3. In reply, I am to state, for the information of the Honorable the Lieutenant-Governor, as follows:—

I.—That all leave or furlough counts towards pension under Indian Regulations in the cases of officers of the Royal (late Indian) Artillery and Engineers, as notified in Government General Orders Nos. 933 of 1877 and 911 of 1878.

II.—Vide preceding answer; service for the extra-annuity is calculated, as laid down in Article 1170a of the Warrant, from the date of first commission.

III.—No. Retirements can only take place in the ranks and under the conditions specified in Article 117a.

IV.—Vide preceding answer; the only provision for the retirement of General Officers is that contained in Article 117b, and such officers can only retire on or before the 31st December 1878.

V.—All absence on furlough, irrespective of the allowances passed to an officer, is considered full-pay service.
