No. 91. From Colonel P. P. O'CONNELL, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Chingleput, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Camp, Red Hills, 4th February 1878, No. 470.

I HAVE the honor to inform you that the Collector having brought to my notice that great difficulty is experienced by the salt boats conveying salt from the Covelong Division to the Dépôt at Homes' gardens owing to obstructions in the canal, I called upon the officer in charge of No. 3 Range to report on the subject. From his reply, submitted after a careful inspection of the canal, it would appear that the sections of the canal requiring attention are those between the 34th and 44th and the 80th and 128th furlong stones. From the latest report received of work done on the canal it is observed that no work whatever has been done in the above sections; and as it is necessary in the interests of the salt revenue to have the same cleared on emergency, I have authorised Mr. Donaghue, in the absence of famine labor at the locality as reported by him, to proceed with the work at once by contract, pending your approval of the same.
