No. 297. — Endorsement of the District Engineer, Presidency, dated 19th February 1878, No. 6,529.

From J. N. GRAINGER, Esq., General Superintendent, Public Works Stores and Workshops, to the District Engineer, Presidency, dated 9th February 1878, No. 3,426.

I HAVE the honor to report that I have examined and tried the cooking range at the General Hospital, and found it complete in all respects and in a fit condition for use. There is no danger from explosion from even ordinary carelessness or neglect on the part of the person working it. In fact I am of opinion that it would be difficult to get up an explosion if intentionally attempted. Enclosed I beg to submit a few rules for the guidance of the person working range.

Rules for the guidance of the person working the Cooking Range in the General Hospital, Madras.

- I. Examine the safety valve, to see that it is not fixed in its seat through rust.
- II. See that the water in the gauge-glasses is half way up the glass.
- III. Light the fires.
- IV. Should steam not be required for the upstairs warmers it should be allowed to escape by opening the valves of the water-boiler and potatoe-steamer.
