No. 82. Endorsement of the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, dated Chengapulli, 3rd June 1879, No. 352.

From R. E. NORFOR, Esq., A.M.I.C.E., Executive Engineer, Salem Division, to the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, dated Salem, 28th April 1879, No. 75.

In forwarding a copy of letter, No. 462, of 22nd April 1879, from the Inspector of Post Offices, Bangalore Division, I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether the Post building therein referred to may be disposed of by auction after due publication in the Local Gazette.

From J. HONOUR, Esq., Inspector, Post Offices, Bangalore Division, to the Executive Engineer, Salem District, dated 22nd April 1879, No. 462.

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you that a small building in the vicinity of the Railway Station premises at Sankaridroog formerly used by the Post Office has been left unoccupied now for a few months, owing to the removal of the Post Office from the Railway Station to the village.

This building belongs to the Post Office Department, and as we have no further use for it the Director-General of the Post Offices in India has ordered that it should be disposed of.

I have ascertained from the Collector, Salem District, that the building is not required for any other public purpose, and under instructions from the Postmaster-General I beg to make it over to your Department for sale in the usual manner, and will thank you to arrange for its being taken charge of as soon as convenient.

The Sub-Postmaster at Sankaridroog will be directed to point out the building to any officer who may be deputed to take charge of it.

I shall be obliged also by your information of the date on which the building may be taken over for disposal by your Department.

From the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, to the Executive Engineer, Salem, dated Coimbatore, 30th April 1879, No. 3,194—444.

Your No. 75 of 28th April 1879.

I have the honor to request, if you have not already done so, that you will take over charge of the unused Post Office at Sankaridroog from the Postal Department.

With reference to the latter part of your letter I have the honor to refer you to G.O., No. 157 W., of 29th May 1877, wherein it is stated that whenever buildings are handed over to the Public Works Department "the Public Works Officers shall after communication with the head of the Department previously occupying the building and with the other heads of Departments in the district obtain orders from Government as to the future disposal of the building, submitting whatever correspondence may have taken place on the subject."

It is requested, therefore, that all correspondence on the subject be submitted without delay for transmission to Government.

From R. E. NORFOLK, Esq., A.N.I.C.E., Executive Engineer, Salem Division, to the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, dated Mullore, 10th May 1879, No. 109.

With reference to your No. 3,194-444, of 30th April 1879, I have the honor to inform you that the letter, No. 462, of 22nd April 1879, from the Inspector of Post Offices, Bangalore Division, enclosed in my letter, No. 75, of 28th idem, is the first communication I received on the Post Office building at Sankaridroog, and that there is no other correspondence on the subject.

P.S.—G.O., No. 157 W., of 29th May 1877, is not to be found in my office.

From the same Officer, dated Kanputty, 16th May 1879, No. 130.

In continuation of this office No. 109, of 10th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the unused Post Office building at Sankaridroog has been taken over charge by the Taluk Overseer on the 12th May 1879.

TRUE COPIES of the above correspondence forwarded for the orders of Government with reference to G.O., No. 157 W., of 29th May 1877.
