Cemeteries.

Read the following paper:—

No. 9. Notification of the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), dated Simla, 16th May 1879, No. 159.

The following Rule is published for general information and guidance, in substitution for Rule V of Part II of the Rules published in Home Department Notification, No. 421, dated the 12th December 1877. Those Rules were for the care and use of Government Cemeteries other than those in the Presidency Town of the Diocese of Calcutta; for the levy and expenditure of fees on graves and monuments in Cemeteries and Churches throughout India; and for the levy of other Ecclesiastical fees:—

RULE V.—British soldiers and non-commissioned officers are exempted, with retrospective effect, from the payment of any fee for the construction of masonry graves, or for the erection of monuments in burial-grounds to the memory of their comrades, wives or children. The widows and children of British soldiers and non-commissioned officers are also exempted from payment of these fees in the case of their deceased husbands or parents. No monument, either regimental or private, shall exceed the dimensions prescribed in paragraph 3, Home Department Resolution,* No. 6—370-82, dated the 9th November 1876.
