Read the following paper :—

No. 30. Endorsement of the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Ecclesiastical Department, dated Ootacamund, 26th July 1879, No. 1,501.
From the Venerable C. R. DRURY, Archdeacon of Madras, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated 24th July 1879, No. 54.

THE Rev. S. Percival, officiating Minister at Negapatam, wrote to me on 28th June 1879, stating that up to that time nothing had been done towards even the temporary repair of St. Peter's Church, which has been closed since 20th April 1879, and that consequently the congregation have been obliged, at great inconvenience, to assemble in an open verandah, exposed to the weather and noise in the street, for divine worship. Mr. Percival, who was originally educated as an Architect, says "that to put the whole edifice in good repair for the next 50 years to come Rupees 5,500 are ample, and that he is prepared to do it for that sum. To put it in temporary repair for immediate use Rupees 250 are quite enough. In fact, I believe, I could do it for less."

I submitted this statement to the Lord Bishop, and he desired me to communicate it to Government.

TRANSFERRED to the Public Works Department for disposal.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Officiating Chief Secretary.
