No. 241. Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India.
Public Works, INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
No. 27. 26th December 1878.

MY LORD DUKE,—I have received your Grace's letter, No. 52, dated the 22nd October last, transmitting a memorial from T. Gurusawmy, late a Sub-Overseer under a Local Fund Board in the Cuddapah District.

2. The petitioner was dismissed from the public service after his conviction on a charge of forgery, and though this conviction was afterwards reversed on appeal your Government declined to reinstate him on the ground of your unwillingness to interfere between Local Fund Boards and their employés, except in cases of palpable injustice, which you do not consider this to be, and further on the grounds of T. Gurusawmy's demerits as a public servant.

3. These appear sufficient reasons for rejecting the prayer of the memorialist but they would have been more conclusive if the dismissal had taken place previously instead of subsequently to the criminal charge, of which he was finally and honorably acquitted.

4. The memorialist may be informed that the case is one with which I am not able to interfere.

His Excellency the Most Noble
The Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

I have, &c.,
