Repairs of the lines of mustered followers of batteries of Royal Artillery and British Cavalry regiments when left vacant by the regiments proceeding on field service, &c.

4. There seems no reason why Commanding Officers should not, with judicious arrangements, manage, as has hitherto been done, to look after their lines when the regiments are absent on service or at a camp of exercise, just as they do with respect to other regimental property,—the mess-house, mess, and personal property, &c.

No. 1836S.-C., dated 13th October 1879.

From—COLONEL A. JOHNSON, Secretary to Government of India, Military Dept.,

To—The Quartermaster-General in India.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 4176-B., "Buildings—Huttings," dated the 11th July 1879, regarding the repairs of the lines of mustered followers of batteries of Royal Artillery and regiments of British Cavalry, and of Bengal Cavalry regiments, when left vacant by the regiments, &c., proceeding on field service, to camps of exercise, or on duties of a similar nature.

2. In reply, I am to acquaint you, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India are pleased to extend the arrangement sanctioned in the letter marginally noted to the lines of Military Department No. 843S.-C., dated 30th June 1879. mustered followers of British Cavalry regiments and batteries of Royal Artillery, any money expended on repairs being deducted from the hutting allowance of the followers next occupying the lines.

3. The Government of India, however, regret to be unable to accede to His Excellency's recommendation that Bengal Cavalry regiments should also be allowed the benefit of this measure. These regiments are not housed by the State, nor are they, under any circumstances, eligible for hutting money; and if the repairs of their lines were effected by the Public Works Department, the cost might be more than they would have spent or would be disposed to pay, resulting in complications of various kinds. Beyond the protection of the lines from wilful damage under the provisions of paragraph 106, Bengal Barrack Regulations, the Government of India are not, I am to state, prepared to interfere in the matter.
