Public Works.

Sir,

Mr. F. Dodsett, lately Mathematical Instrument Maker at Madras, having as you are aware, been permitted with the concurrence of the Madras Government to retire from the service, I should be obliged by your informing me whether it is still the wish of that Government that a successor to Mr. Dodsett should be selected in this Country.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

H. T. Prinsep
Secretary,
Public Works Department

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
