REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ THE FOLLOWING PAPERS:—

No. 119. From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., C.S.I., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 26th April 1879, No. A.B.W—54.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the orders of Government, under Rule 2-A, Section 52, of the Civil Pension Code, that the Collector of Cuddapah has entertained T. Gundu Rao as Gumastah in Pulivendala Taluk when his age has exceeded 25 years. He is stated to be 50 years old. Special attention is drawn to this case as the man is 50 years of age.

REFERRED to the Board of Revenue for report.

OOTACAMUND,
2nd May 1879.

(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,
Acting Secretary to Government.

No. 120. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th July 1879, Miscellaneous No. 6,351.

Read the following letter from A. W. B. HIGGINS, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, to J. D. B. GRIBBLE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated Cuddapah, 16th June 1879, No. 162.

IN reply to your foot-note No. 1,228, appended to G.O., No. 4,303, of 13th May 1879, I have the honor to inform you that the reason which prompted my predecessor to appoint Gundu Rao to 15 Rs. Gumastahship at such an advanced age was that he was an old servant, inasmuch as his first entry into the public service in the inferior grade dates so far as the year 1852, and that he was exempted by Government from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination.

Though I cannot speak anything on his behalf from my own personal knowledge and observation, yet I learn that his usefulness, &c., has given much satisfaction to the different Tahsildars under whom he has served. Under such circumstances I see no reason why he should be deprived of the promotion which his long service deserves. I beg, therefore, you will be good enough to move the Government for his retention in his present post. His service book is herewith submitted for your perusal and for subsequent return.

No. 210.

FORWARDED to the Board of Revenue with reference to their Proceedings, No. 4,303, dated 13th May last, for submission to Government with their favorable recommendation, as the individual in question was appointed to a post in the superior service from one in the inferior grade which he has been continuously holding from 1852. He further appears to have been exempted from passing the General Test Examination as being an old servant.

No. 121. From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., C.S.I., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 27th May 1879, No. A.B.W—70.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the orders of Government, under Rule 4, Section 61, of the Civil Pension Code, fourth authorised edition, that the Collector of Bellary has entertained D. Govinda Rao as Gumastah in the Harpanhalli Taluk when his age has exceeded 25 years. He is stated to be 27 years old.

REFERRED to the Board of Revenue for report.

(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,
Acting Secretary to Government.

No. 122. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th July 1879, Miscellaneous No. 6,620.

Read the following letter from D. ANANTHAYA, Acting Deputy Collector, Harphanhalli Division, to H. P. GORDON, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, dated 5th July 1879, No. 374.

WITH reference to your foot-note appended to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated the 17th ultimo, No. 5,522, I have the honor to report that D. Govinda Rao therein referred to was, it appears, first appointed Dufterbund of the Harpanhalli Taluk Cutcherry on the 1st July 1875 when his age was 23 years 6 months and 25 days and promoted to his present appointment of Clerk in the Harpanhalli Taluk by my predecessor on the 9th January last when he was 27 years 1 month and 4 days old.

SUBMITTED to the Board of Revenue with reference to their Proceedings bearing Miscellaneous No. 5,522, dated 17th June 1879.

(Signed) M. HAMMICK,
10th July 1879. for Acting Collector.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to Revenue Secretary's endorsement, dated 30th May 1879, on letter from the Accountant-General, dated 27th May 1879, No. A.B.W—70.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) C. A. GALTON,
Acting Secretary.

No. 123. ORDER THEREON, 10th September 1879, No. 1,849.

Miscellaneous.

THE Accountant-General reports that two men have been entertained in the public service when their age exceeded 25 years, viz., in Cuddapah T. Gunda Rao and in Bellary D. Govinda Rao.

These reports are made by the Accountant-General under Rule 4, Section 61, Civil Pension Code, which requires him to report when a person whose age exceeded 25 years "has been admitted to the public service."

2. In both the present cases the men were already in the public service as "inferior" servants, but were promoted to a "superior" grade and, as it is doubtful whether such promotion is, even for the purposes of the above rule, equivalent to admission to the public service, a reference on the subject will be made to the Government of India.

Acting Secretary to Government.
