Establishment.

Read the following paper :—

No. 136. From J. W. HANDLEY, Esq., Government Pleader, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 5th March 1879, No. 51.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government in the Public Works Department noted in the margin, I have the honor to report that the appeal therein referred to (Appeal No. 78 of 1878) was heard on the 20th ultimo, when the suit was remanded to the District Court for trial on the merits, costs to abide the event. It had been dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff could not sue until he had come to a settlement of accounts with the other persons who were partners with him in the contract on which the suit was brought. The High Court held that as he had made the other partners parties to the suit there was no reason why the case should not be tried on the merits.

No. 137. ORDER THEREON, 11th March 1879, No. 722 W.
