The humble memorial of Nawab Nazmut Dowlah Rustumjah Dawudally Khan Bahadur Intezam Jung, Nawab of Masulipatam in the Kristna district.

May It please your Noble Grace.

Owing to various unfortunate circumstances I was compelled to contract several debts to the large amount of One Lac of Rupees. These debts together with interest & compound interest, have, I regret to say, gradually increased to the amount of Rupees 15,000. Some of my creditors resorted to legal proceedings and obtained decrees from the Courts against me, and were about to take steps to cause my mortgaged property to be put up to public auction by the order of the Court to my indignity for the liquidation of their exorbitant demands. My difficulties thus increased to extremity.

I therefore had no other alternative to save my credit than to sell my ancestral jewellery and other property both real and personal & apply the proceeds to the liquidation of my debts. I accordingly sold the greatest portion of my jewellery to the Zamindar of Purla Kimidy in the Ganjam district through the Collector of Ganjam for Rupees 50,000 & paid the money to those of my creditors who held the mortgage of the jewellery towards the liquidation of their demands.

The assured promises of my creditors to remit the decreed penal interest stipulated in my bonds in the event of my paying them at once the principal of the bonds together with the original interest primarily agreed to, urged me to offer in a hurry my large house, known as the Collector's, for Rupees 20000. This was far below it's fair price, but I hoped to raise money speedily, and although it is now six months since I offered the house I have had no answer up to date.

Now I hear that your Grace's Government directed a correct valuation of the house to be taken by the Engineer and submitted to your Grace's Government. As your Grace has thus resolved to fix the price of the Bungalow according to the valuation of the Engineer and as my only object in selling the house is for the liquidation of my debt at once & for obtaining thereby the promised remission of the penal interest, my most humble request is that your Grace will be most graciously pleased to direct that the price of the house which will be fixed by the Engineer, may be paid to me, as I am willing to accept the valuation whether it may be less or more than Rupees 20000 for which I originally offered to the Collector.

I may add that I will escape the penal interest if I can pay the sum before the 15th April next according to promise. I therefore earnestly beg your Grace will be graciously pleased to sanction the payment of the price in accordance with the Engineer's valuation. For which act of indulgence I as in duty bound, shall ever pray.
