Sir,—I am directed to inquire whether any gratuity may under Section 59-2 of the Civil Pension Code be passed to an officer who succeeds in obtaining temporary or acting employment prior to the expiration of the period for which gratuity in lieu of notice is provided for by the above-mentioned rule.

2. It may happen that an officer, whose services on the permanent establishment have been dispensed with, may, after remaining out of employ for the greater portion of the said period, obtain a temporary or acting appointment, and it is considered by the local Examiner, Public Works Accounts, that such an officer must refund the whole gratuity received by him. It appears however to this Government that it would be equitable in such cases to pass a gratuity proportionate to the period during which the person concerned remained unemployed.

Sir,

Government in their order Financial Deptt, No. 675 dt. 1st April 1880 (copy attached) having decided that the gratuity in lieu of Notice admissible under Rule 2 Section 59 of the Civil Pension Code, to Clerks and others whose services have been dispensed with in the recent reductions of Establishment is debitable to the Department in which the men concerned were last employed, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to submit at once to Government a list of such of the Clerks and others whom you consider deserving of the gratuity in question, and obtain the requisite _specific_ sanction to admit of the same being paid to them on an early date, & on receipt of Government sanction, instructions should be issued to the Executive Engineers concerned for such claims being prepared in separate salary Bills and the same submitted to this Office for audit.

2. It should be noted that no payment on account of such claims should be made unless they are previously sanctioned by Government and admitted by this Office;

3. The following points require attention.

(A) Men thrown out of employ but who have obtained employment under Government within a reasonable time after their discharge are not entitled to the gratuity prescribed in Rule 2 section 59 of the Civil Pension Code.

(B) Men thrown out of employ, who have obtained temporary or acting appointments are not entitled to such gratuity
