I have the honor to inform you that Captain Barber's wishes regarding the payment of the bonus cannot be complied with.

2. The enclosures which accompanied your letter No 95 of the 7th Instant are herewith returned

3. I think the best way to act would be to ask Government to have the money paid to Capt. Barber in England through the Secretary of State and I shall be glad to ask Government to do so if you wish it.
If

If Captain Barber wishes the money paid to any one here he must give him a regularly stamped authority to receive it.

31st March 1880 - I have the honor to enclose the papers noted in the margin and to inform you that before receipt of the order Captain Barber had left the country - and being under the impression that his bonus would have to be paid through the Executive Engineer ^{Eastern D^o} Godavery he had given to that Officer the letter enclosed stating what he wished done with the money

2. The collector in his letter enclosed states that Captain Barber's wishes cannot be complied with and suggests that Government should be asked to request the Secretary of State to pay the bonus to Captain Barber in England - but Captain Barber was particularly desirous that it should be paid out here in the way, stated in his letter, and I have the honor to ask your assistance in the matter or information as to what should be done -

3. \ Captain Barber's pension he does wish paid in England and as far as I am aware he always did wish it paid there, and I do not know why arrangements were made for its payment at Dowlaischuram and I trust you will make the necessary arrangements for its payment by the Secretary of State -

To

The Secretary of State for India

My Lord Marquis,

We have the honor
to forward herewith certain correspondence in regard to the payment to Capt Barber, late of the I. W. Dept of this Presidency, of the pension and bonus which have been sanctioned to him on his retirement.

2. It will be observed that Capt Barber left India for England without making definite arrangements as to the place of payment of his pension order, and that the bonus which he wishes paid to the Pensioning Engineer Kodavari could not be so disbursed owing to there being no regularly stamped authority. ²¹³⁰/₁₄

3. We have the honor
to request that Capt.
Barber may be called on to make proper arrangements for the payment of his bonus in India should he still desire that it be disbursed in this country; and that he be requested to state definitely whether his pension is to be made payable in India or England.
