This method
of sanctioning
against a grant
about to be made
no doubt causes
inconvenience and
it could be best
to go up to Govt.
with a statement
of probable
requirements, naming
a lump sum addition.

no trace of them can be found. J.G. 19/11

I happen to remember
sending up this particular file as I told the registering Clerk <sup>at the time</sup> not to delay the papers by entering them all down
separately. but to make one entry for all. The entry he made is as follows. "Papers regarding abatement of funds
sent to R.P." I called one of the Peons and
handed him the papers myself. I cannot recall which Peon
it was. It is possible
that he took them
to the wrong room.
The papers however
have not appeared
since. R.P.
