To the

Under Secretary of State for India

I applied to day at the Treasury of the India Office for payment of the Pension granted to my husband W.
R. Norris by the Madras Government from the 1st of April last.

My husband elected to be paid the pension in England, and gave me a power of attorney to receive it.

He wrote to the authorities informing them of his election some time since, and I presented the power of attorney at the Treasury together with a certificate that my husband is alive. I also presented a certified extract from the proceedings of the Madras Government granting the pension, but was informed by the gentleman in the Treasury whom whom I saw, that he had not yet received the formal instructions upon the matter, and that he could not act without your authority upon the certified extract which was forwarded to my husband by the India Office on the 1st of Sept^r last.

My husband has gone to India to take up an appointment under the Local Funds in the Madras Presidency leaving me dependent upon the pension until I join him. Under these circumstances and considering the time that has already elapsed, I would respectfully beg of you to authorize the Treasury to pay me the pension upon the strength of the certified extract of the proceedings of the Madras Government which I now enclose for your perusal and thus confer a great favour upon

Your obedient servant
Alice M. Norris
