Read the following paper :—

No. 14. Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India.

Public Works.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
4th December 1879.

No. 27.

My LORD DUKE,—I have received your telegram of the 24th October, and have directed that the diving apparatus for the Madras Harbour Works be provided and sent out at the earliest possible date.

2. It might be well to point out to the officers or department concerned that the exercise of a little forethought might have prevented the necessity of making this requisition by telegraph. Indeed a general intimation of similar character to all indenting departments might not be superfluous.

I have, &c.,
