As you are returning in word I leave this for you. It is greatly to be regretted that the fact of Mr. Castellanos not being named the U.C. examination was overlooked - He was selected out of some ninety candidates as being the most promising I can see it never occurred to me to ask whether he had joined the unit of course he joined in the time he has worked, and as it would be a great inconvenience to look out for a new man after nearly two months of the same work which has elapsed, I think we might ask for to sanction his continued as a special case

Mr. Castellanos is the man entertained under the order sanctioning a temporary clerk on Rs 50 per mensem for the work of arranging the office Library - The library work being done by Mr. Cruickshank & Mr. Castellanos is included in the current section

From the attached it it will be seen that the A.C. was not aware that Clerk was an unpassed man when his appt. was recommended.

When he was formerly the office, the C. appt. did not raise the question whether he was a proper candidate.

There is no rule which Mr. Castellanos can contravene temporary appt., unless he be exempted from the final Test Exam. by an order of Govt.

Vide Code para 242.

Under para 238 an un-passed man can be employed temporarily for one month - for any period beyond that the orders of Govt. are required.

The case might be met by asking Govt. to exempt Mr. Castella so far only as his present appt. is concerned - Numerous precedents exist for such a course in other depts, & the Clerk would derive no benefit whatever from the exemption beyond his present tempy. appointment.

It is no doubt much to be regretted that the mistake in question has occurred and much as I should personally wish to see an exception made in Mr. Castellanos favor I cannot see sufficient justification for making the recommendation on public grounds

Mr D'Castellas is willing to go up for the next examination if required, but as this does not take place until December next, & as his connection with the office will have ceased ^{some months} prior to that date - the probability of his passing or failing hardly affects the present question.

Mr D'Castellas' appt.
is for six months from the 1st March 88.

FOR ORDERS.

Under the sanction accorded in G.O.
 No. 345-M dated 10th February 1881, a Mr. L. C.
 D'Castillas was inter-named in the Public Works Secretariat as a temporary clerk on P. 50 per mensem for a period of six months.
 He was selected out of some ninety Candidates as being the most promising, and as he had previously served in the office for 8 months in 1878 in a temporary appointment carrying a similar salary, no question was raised as to whether he had passed the M. C. S. Examination.

The Examiner has however now asked the question in his list of disallowances for March 1881, and on inquiry it is found that the Clerk is an unpassed man.

It is greatly to be regretted that this fact was overlooked when Mr. D. Castellus was appointed - He must now be paid for the period he has worked, and it would be a great inconvenience to look out

out for a new man after nearly two months of the sanctioned period has elapsed.

The undersigned therefore begs to recommend this Clerk's exemption from the U. C. S. Examination rules only so far as his present appointment is concerned. Such a course is not without precedent, and Mr.
D'Casto has would derive no benefit from the exemption beyond his present temporary post.

When he was previously in the office, his pay ~~for~~
