Sir,

Telegram from Governor, Madras to the Secretary of State. Dated 2nd February 1881.

"Foreman required for screw "moorings Madras Harbour - Please
"engage and send out a man - Terms
"on record in Mr Parkes' Office - Calcutta
"cannot supply."

/ With reference to your Excellency's telegram, - quoted in the margin, I have to inform you that Mr E. Jackson who is acting for Mr Parkes & Co during his absence from this Country, has recommended Mr W. S. Boteler for employment as Foreman for putting down and fixing the mooring system in the Madras Harbour, and I have accordingly caused Mr Boteler to be engaged for such employment on the terms and conditions detailed in the accompanying Copy of agreement entered into by him

2. Mr Boteler will leave for Madras by the Mail leaving Southampton on the 30th Instant.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant

W. S. Boteler

His Excellency
The Right Honourable
The Governor in Council
Fort St George.
