Sir

In submitting to you the whole correspondence noted in the margin (to be returned) on the subject of the present accommodation allowed to the Sub Registrar of Vedaraniam in a portion of the Sub Magistrate's building at that station, I have the honor to request that as you will yourself clearly perceive therefrom that the Collector, the Deputy Collector, the District Sany Sahasildar and the Vedarani Sub Magistrate, me and all complain complain that the Sub Registrar

Sub Magistrate by his thus occupying the latter's office

Sub Registrar reports that he could not succeed in renting a suitable house for his office as already kindly instructed by you and as there seems therefore no other alternative in the matter, you will be pleased to sanction at your earliest convenience the construction departmentally of a new office building for the Sub Registrar at a cost of about Rupees 900 (as per detailed estimate which will be shortly submitted) within the Sub Magistrate's office compound itself as there is also the Collector's permission for the construction of the new
