Endorsement of the Military Secretary to the Right Hon'ble the Governor, on Memorial from Mr. J. Le'Febvre, late Sub-Overseer, M. Dept., dated 11th April 1879.

FOR ORDERS.

William Le'Febvre.
 Mr. W. Horden was acquitted. They were only discharged (it is a very different matter. No exoneration. Shows
 the parties liable to be again put on trial) on the ground that the evidence raised strong suspicion of some inadequate precommitment
 to the proper provisions.
 Edw. M. Le'Febvre

It will be seen from the accompanying papers that Mr. Le'Febvre was suspended on the 8th May 1878 on suspicion of complicity in a fraud for which he was criminally tried and acquitted. He was re-instated in September 1878.
 But in February 1879 he was again suspended under G.O. No.
 157 W dated 11th January 1879
 pending legal proceedings against Mr. Horden, the principal in the case.

2. In November 1879 Mr.

Le'Febvre

Le' Febour petitioned that his suspension might be brought to a close, and this was sanctioned in G. O. N^o. 3146 W dated 9th December 1879 on "the condition that his continuance in employment is subject to such orders as may hereafter be passed."

3. There is nothing on record in this Department to show the result of the legal proceedings which the Government in the Finance Department ordered to be instituted against Mr. Norden.

4. The Memorialist Mr. Le' Febour now requests that he may be paid his full salary during the period of his suspension.

5. Seeing that the man was acquitted of fraud, and that he was subsequently reinstated by order of Government, that a man of Mr. Le' Febour's antecedents could have innocently acted as he did in preparing a bill in which the actual charges were set down at double what Mr. Norden deducted from the specified rate. The result being that Mr. Norden made by the low professional value of his services of some Rs. 13000 in excess of what was really due to him for his services. I think I trust.

I think Mr. Le' Febour was very lucky to get off as he did. His explanation is & my mind wholly inadmissible.

Mr. Le' Febour's refusal to give him anything more during his suspension than what the strict letter of the Rules prescribes.

1/5/87

there seems no reason why he should not draw his full pay; there being no prospect apparently of the "orders on his case" referred to in January 1879 N^o. 157 W, being now passed.
