I have considered in Council your letter, dated the 23rd November, No. 391, recommending that Mr. W. C. 2. Mr. Barton was entitled by the terms under which he accepted employment in Travancore, as sanctioned by your Government, to claim employment under the Madras Government on the termination of his service under the Travancore Government, who have granted him a pension of £500 a year from the 11th May 1880.

3. Under the very exceptional circumstances of Mr. Barton's case, I sanction the grant to him of the pension and gratuity recommended by your Government.
