Madras.

28th April 1881.

My dear Colonel Stanley - Captain Taylor wrote to me on Tuesday, asking me to attend a meeting of the Harbour Committee yesterday afternoon, in place of Major Penny-CUICK. I went, but I am not sure whether I ought to have done so.
as I don't know whether it is not a purely personal appointment.

To The Secy. to the Govt.

Will you kindly let me know whether I am to attend these meetings in future -

Yours sincerely

To The Secretary

Hon W. Huddleston

In order

While receiving the annexed note from
Lt. Dawson it did not occur to me that any special arrangements would be necessary for seeing the presence of a P.W. member on the Harbour Committee
during Major Pennington's absence. But as the matter has thus come to notice I would with the H. C.'s sanction wish now to appoint Colonel Prendergast
to officiate
