GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

9th June 1881, No. 899.

READ THE FOLLOWING PAPER:—

No. 123. Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home, Revenue and Agricultural Department (Famine), under date Simla, the 21st May 1881, No. 71.

Read—

Resolution of the Government of India, Financial Department, No. 2,087, dated the 10th August 1878, and No. 1,453, dated the 26th March 1879, regarding the grant of certain concessions to deserving officers who suffered in health in consequence of famine duty in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies and in the Mysore Province.

Read a second time—

Letter from the Government of Bengal to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 497-E, dated the 21st March 1879, submitting, for the benefit of the concessions, a list of officers and subordinates who were deputed for service on famine relief works in Madras and Bombay, in which list is included the name of Mr. F. Sills, Executive Engineer.

Letter from the Government of Bengal to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 2,268-I.E., dated the 5th June 1879, submitting the case of Mr. E. A. Parsick, Assistant Engineer, and stating that it will be referred to the Government of Madras.

Letter from the Government of Bengal to the Government of India in the Public Works Department, No. 3,174-I.E., dated the 15th August 1879, forwarding copy of a letter from the Government of Madras (No. 1,308, dated 18th June 1879), in which Messrs. Parsick and Sills are denied the first of the concessions under Financial Resolution, dated the 10th August 1878.

Letter from the Government of Madras, No. 1,636, dated the 6th December 1880, forwarding copy of its proceedings on the general question of the first of the concessions under Financial Resolution of the 10th August 1878, and requesting that, if the views of the Governor in Council are accepted, the necessary communication may be made to the Government of Bengal allowing among others Messrs. Sills and Parsick the benefit of the concession.

Read also—

Resolution of the Government of India, Home, Revenue and Agricultural Department, No. 37-42, dated the 25th February 1881, reviewing (in paragraph 6) the cases of Messrs. Sills and Parsick, and requesting to be furnished with their medical certificates, and with a report as to the dates on which they took leave.

Endorsement of the Public Works Department, No. 474-G, dated the 31st March 1881, forwarding a letter from the Government of Bengal (No. 564-E., dated the 23rd March 1881), giving cover to the medical certificates required, and reporting that Mr. Sills availed himself of leave on medical certificate on the 4th May 1879, and that Mr. Parsick was on privilege leave from 7th January to 21st February 1879, and on sick leave from 1st March to 20th April 1879, and again from 1st May 1879 for 5 months and 10 days.

Letter of the Government of Madras, No. 534, dated the 29th March 1881, and enclosures, recommending that Mr. H. F. Clogston, of the Madras Civil Service, who was invalided direct from famine duty in April 1878, be admitted to the benefit of the first of the concessions under Resolution of the 10th August 1878.

B. N. 1576 W 3 25 June 1881

RESOLUTION.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to admit Mr. F. Sills, Executive Engineer, Mr. E. A. Parsick, Assistant Engineer, and Mr. H. F. Clogstoun, of the Madras Civil Service, to the benefit of the first of the concessions under the Financial Resolutions of the 10th August 1878 and the 26th March 1879 mentioned in the preamble.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to the Governments of Madras and Bengal, and to the Public Works Department.
