3.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the only verandah on the north side of the Principal's quarters is a temporary structure of wood the roof of which is now so rotten that it is unsafe to stand or sit under it.

2. As the house is ill supplied with verandahs, and as the rooms on the north side have no protection against wind, sun and rain, I would suggest the desirableness of erecting a permanent shelter in place of renewing the present structure.

3. I enclose a plan, specification and estimate prepared by the Public Works Department, and request that, should you see no objection, application may be made for the sum of Rs 1120 to be placed at the disposal of that Department for this service.
