India Office
London, 5th July 1881.

Sir,

In reply to your letter, No 1321, dated 23rd May last, I have to inform you that, in addition to the payment of £29.17.11 to Mr Boteler, of the Madras Harbour Works, as an advance of pay, a sum of 14^s/- was issued to him for travelling expenses, making the total payment of £30. 11. 11, as shown in the statement of payments made in England on account of the Madras Harbour Works, during the month of March 1881.

The details of this extra payment to Mr Boteler were omitted from that Statement by an oversight.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant

The Secretary
Public Works Department
Government of Madras.

John D. D. D.
Secretary
Public Works Department
