In order

Please see the amended Office notes

As the Hon.ble to the Hon.ble has already read the case before him it is unnecessary for me to enter into particulars

I confess that I am severely the punishment of those who have been guilty of the last such culpable negligence as to deprive them in any degree of any consideration but as the concession has already been made in the case of the and whose office was of anything more serious I must leave it to the Court to decide whether the Judge should not be reprimanded.

3/8/81

The time passed under suspension was to count for pension.

It is necessary however that this point should be decided, with reference to Sec. 95 rules, C.P. Code 5th Edition.

The file of correc
relating to the two clerks is at Oatley.

You are sufficiently aware of the facts; I think Mr. Haynes's request might be granted, in which case a similar concession will have to be made to two others.

The orders of payment
will be required -

that the Dy W will be induced favorably
to dispose of my case & grant me
the same indulgence as that of Mr. Supr. Arbuthnot
who forfeited
all pay -

I take the liberty of putting up his case for easy reference.

I beg you will kindly submit this my application to the Adjut praying that I may be allowed to count towards pension the period passed by me under suspension. (Para 548 of the M. Code).

I beg respectfully to represent that the humiliation & anxiety of mind with a forfeiture of half pay and having to make good the amount outstanding against me may be taken into consideration in disposing of this petition as it would bear very hard on me in having to lose such a period of service.

I earnestly beg
