The Executive Engineer

Sir,

I beg leave to request that you will be good enough to forward this letter my application for the ensuing examination in the Divisional Accounts.

2. It is needless I think for me to add as the testimonials given me by the Executive Engineers will shew that in all the Divisions in which I was employed there was nothing wanting on my part to render the accounts in time as also to preserve order in the office.

3. I beg to solicit that your goodness will be pleased to recommend me a few more trials in this examination.

SIR,

Enclosure.

With reference to your Circular No. 4B of 28th June 1881 results of the Examination of Accountants held 20th June 1881 I have the honor to solicit you will be so good as to grant two more trials, to my Office Accountant C. Bhoojanga Row Puntulu, from the list you will observe that he obtained 53 marks ^{out of} 64 required to secure a pass, although the Accountant is a Capital hand, he unfortunately has no time to read the Code, as his duties occupy all his time by the Division Office work being very

No. 117

I forwarded to the Examiner with a request that the accountants request may be complied with. He appears to be well up in his work & has had always given satisfaction to his superiors. He did not present himself for the 1st exam in October 80. He was not examined in 5th lang. & may, to my not being able to hold the Examination he failed to pass the two last. Exams held in 4th April & 20th June last. It is not known on what grounds he was not passed, but if it were known he failed to express himself in good English. I would be to point out that this tho desirable is not essential as long as he can make himself intelligible. In such cases examines as in Examiner's letter No 372 SE 2 of 24th July 80 I have considered of expression would be taken into account but whether as an essential to passing or as a sub. off to partial failure in knowledge of accounts & of the portions of the Code bearing on accounts is not stated.

the Toll Department duties. devolving on him also, necessitating his working beyond Office hours.
He has been in the Department for the last 25 years and as Head Accountant he has worked for 11 years, the several Officers under whom he has served bear testimony of his qualifications and character and I do most earnestly desire that the indulgence solicited for him may be sanctioned under the circumstances stated.
