GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

29th September 1881, No. 2408-A W.

General.
Establishment.

Read the following paper:—

No. 176. From J. W. RUNDALL, Esq., Superintendent of Works, Kistna, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Masulipatam, 15th September 1881, No. 1,184.

I HAVE the honor to bring to your notice that M. Parthasarathy Naidu, late Sub-Overseer, to whom an invalid gratuity of Rs. 720 was granted in G.O., (Pension Department), No. 313 of the 19th March 1881, was sometime in 1878-79 employed as a contractor on the Guntūr Jail improvements, and that a balance of Rs. 70-15-8 is still due by him.

2. I called on the Sub-Overseer to pay up this sum, but beyond informing me that he did not intend to apply for his gratuity till he had received a reply to a petition he has sent to Government, claiming pension, instead of gratuity, he has taken no steps to repay this money. I have the honor to request that the Collector of the Kistna may be instructed to remit to me the sum of Rs. 70-15-8, now shown by our accounts to be due by the late Sub-Overseer.

3. I am informed that certain work was given on contract to this Sub-Overseer (after his retirement from the service) in October 1878 by Mr. R. E. Norfor, the then Executive Engineer, Guntūr Division, with a view to recover a sum of money, Rs. 103-8-9, charged in his cash-book, when he was in charge of the work, for the manufacture of bricks, which bricks were condemned and rejected by the Executive Engineer. As Parthasarathy admits having taken the contract, and did work to the extent of Rs. 32-9-1, the sum shown by the accounts should be recovered from the sum now to be paid to him, and I request the favor of orders accordingly.

4. As I now learn that Parthasarathy has applied for the payment of the gratuity sanctioned, please send telegraphic instructions to the Collector to withhold payment of the sum we claim.

No. 177. ORDER THEREON, 29th September 1881, No. 2408-A W.

It appears from this letter that a sum of Rs. 70-15-8 is due by M. Parthasarathy Naidu on account of Government money entrusted to him, his expenditure of which was disallowed; the materials on which he had spent it having been rejected as worthless.

2. The amount will therefore be stopped from the gratuity payable to him, the Collector of the Kistna being instructed accordingly by telegraph. Ordered that the following telegram be despatched:—

"To the Collector, Kistna.

"Rupees seventy Annas fifteen Pies eight to be stopped from gratuity sanctioned to Parthasarathy Naidu, late of Public Works Department."

I don't think there will be anything unusual in stopping this amount from any

by Govt. The question of the Contract does not seem involved.

To
From S. J. M. Vintner
No 1184 of 15th inst.

There seems something inevitable, and there is certainly something undignified in taking this method of securing a claim against an ex-serviceman of the department.

It is by no means certain that the claim would be payable in law,
and the to allow a

man to undertake
a contract in order to cover losses & sustenance
of his alleged mismanagement as a member of the department, seems a serious proceeding.

The claim might well
be waived altogether, or the only route left to be recovered of ordinary legal process.

The order of payment
will be necessary.

In ordinary legal process seems to me
the only tenable course.
Mr R. E. Norrish comments
this matter was quite unimportant but he is
