Letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, to the Secretary in the Revenue Department, No. 28, dated 4th January 1878.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of the orders contained in Resolution, No. 3957, dated 29th October 1877, and letter to the Government of Bombay, No. 164, dated 1st May 1878, and of all other orders on the subject, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to sanction the following travelling allowances for Ministerial and Menial Officers who are entitled to travelling allowances, when travelling by railway on duty, or on transfer from one office to another:—

For an Officer whose service is superior under the Civil Pension Code:

At the option of the officer, in lieu of any daily or monthly travelling allowance to which he may be otherwise entitled—

If the officer's salary is not less than Rs. 50		Second-class fare.
Otherwise		{ Intermediate class fare, or if there be no intermediate class accommodation in the train by which he is required to travel, second-class fare.

For an Officer whose service is inferior under the Civil Pension Code:

In addition to any daily or monthly travelling allowance to which he may be otherwise entitled.	}	Third-class fare.
---	---	-------------------

2. If the journey involves the absence of the officer from his headquarters or standing-camp for one or more nights, so that, presumably, it becomes necessary for him to carry with him servants and baggage, double the fare to which he would otherwise be entitled may, at the discretion of his superior officer, be granted to him.

3. An officer in superior service may not, except as provided in paragraph 4, charge railway fare on any day for which he receives daily or monthly travelling allowance.

4. If an officer in superior service is required to travel on one day partly by railway and partly otherwise, or to make a railway journey in the course of another journey, or of a tour, then, at the discretion of his superior officer, he may be reimbursed his actual expenses, not exceeding, on the whole, the amount to which he is entitled under paragraph 1 or 2 of this Resolution added to the amount to which he would be otherwise entitled, for the period occupied by the journey by railway, as daily or monthly (contract) travelling allowance.

ORDERED that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and distributed for information and guidance as follows:—

- 1.—To the several Departments of the Government of India.
- 2.—To the several Local Governments and Administrations.
- 3.—To the Comptroller-General, and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.

Allowances.

Read the following paper :—

Proceedings of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce (Pay and Allowance—Travelling Allowance), dated Simla, 1st September 1881, No. 2787 [Current No. 2478].

Read again—

Financial Resolution No. 387, dated 30th April 1879, sanctioning, in supersession of all previous orders on the subject, the grant of travelling allowances to ministerial and menial officers who are entitled to such allowances when travelling by railway on duty, or on transfer from one office to another.

Read—

A letter from the Surveyor-General of India, No. 3202, dated 29th December 1880, requesting reconsideration of the order as far as it relates to the grant to an officer of a second-class fare when there is no intermediate-class accommodation in the train.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of the orders contained in the Resolution read in the preamble, the Governor-General in Council sanctions the following travelling allowances for ministerial and menial officers who are entitled to travelling allowances when travelling by railway on duty, or on transfer from one office to another :—

For an officer whose service is superior under the Civil Pension Code—

At the option of the officer, in lieu of any daily or monthly travelling allowance to which he may be otherwise entitled—

if the officer's salary is not less than Rs. 50 a-month,—second-class fare; or where there are only two classes, upper-class fare;

if the officer's salary is less than Rs. 50 but not less than Rs. 10 a-month,—intermediate-class fare, or, if there be no intermediate-class accommodation in the train by which he is required to travel, third, or, where there are only two classes, lower-class fare.

For an officer whose service is inferior under the Civil Pension Code—in addition to any daily or monthly travelling allowance to which he may be otherwise entitled,—the fare of the lowest class in the train by which he may be ordered to proceed, whether called lower, third, or fourth class.

2. If the journey involves the absence of the officer from his head-quarters or standing camp for one or more nights, so as to make it necessary for him to carry with him servants and baggage, double the fare to which he would otherwise be entitled may, at the discretion of his superior officer, be granted to him.

3. An officer in superior service may not, except as provided in paragraph 4, charge railway fare on any day for which he receives travelling allowance at the daily or monthly rate.

4. If an officer in superior service is required to travel on one day partly by railway and partly otherwise, or to make a railway journey in the course of another journey, or of a tour, then, at the discretion of his superior officer, he may be reimbursed his actual expenses, not exceeding, on the whole, the amount to which he is
