CL

J. Pedlow, Army Medical Department, respecting the rent paid by him for public quarters.-

2. In reply, I am to state for the information of the Govt. of Madras, that, pending the result of a reference now being made to Her Majesty's Government, on the general question of the rent chargeable to Surgeons of less than 6 years' standing for quarters, Surgeon Pedlow may be allowed to pay the rent fixed for a Lieutenant, on the understanding that he shall be liable to pay the difference between that amount and the sum recoverable from Captains, with arrears, should the Secretary of State decide that Surgeons are to pay rent as Captains, in accordance with their relative rank.
