IN compliance with G.O., No. 2,209 W., dated the 7th September 1881, I have the honor to forward herewith for transmission to the India Office, London, the duplicate Packing Accounts of forty-four vessels named in the list printed with the Government Order above quoted, which brought out stores for the Madras Harbour Works in 1879-80.

2. The duplicates for the vessels that arrived subsequently are being prepared and will follow at an early date, and I regret that through an oversight they had not been returned as promptly as required by the printed instructions.

3. As the duplicate Packing Accounts for three vessels named in the margin appear to be mislaid, I request to be allowed to furnish in lieu thereof true copy of the receipts that were granted for the stores delivered from those vessels.
