Please note on this as I think I should give advice
in regarding that no
draughtsman should
be entertained

It is of course possible
but the temporary
employment of a
draughtsman is all
that would in any case be necessary

I certainly think that for such a list of works as that given a draughtsman
is

a temporary additional clerk to aid in completing the estimates.

No. 1848, the ~~under~~ Chief Engineer has the honour to say that
for such a list of

It was not supposed that the Local Funds

much on hand.

likely to have funds
for the execution of all the works named
within a reasonable

As you know the District will perhaps you can give some
information on the matter I myself see no
sufficient reason against the proposed increase though I don't understand the allusion to
pension allowances
in the Resolution
nor do I know what the comparison of the charge with what it
was under our Regl.
is about.

The reduction is not so great as would
appear at first sight;
but that making allowance for this, it is still considerable - as it is doubt is -

The figures given
are no doubt correct,
the normal local
fund expenditure of
the circle having been
from Rs 1,20,000 to Rs 1,50,000 - The great increase in 1875/76
was due to the reconstruction of the Palam Bridge and other
works damaged by the

recession in the P.W.D., the universal opinion of all officers being that their absence throws upon the overseer a lot of clerical work which can be much better done by a writer, and diminishes his usefulness for professional work - The same arguments will apply to L.P. work - The Grants seem to be about the leave and pension allowances means that the sum formerly paid to the P.W.D. was "in full of all demands" while the cost of the present establishment is exclusive of the allowance named
and that consequently

I am of opinion that the demand for additional clerical

reasonable; the circle
is a large and
wealthy one, and the expenditure considerable.

As regards the overseers' writers we have found them

tion from the

an increase to the

I am of opinion

2. As regards the
