No. 4079, dated 29th December 1880.

From—R. B. Chapman, Esq., Secy. to the Govt. of India, Dept. of Finance and Commerce,
To—The Accountant General, North Western Provinces and Oudh.

In reply to your demi-official letters, dated 30th November and 3rd December 1880, regarding the new Rules for progressive pay, I am directed to say that Section 34 (a) of the Acting Allowance Code does not fix the pay of a progressive appointment, but only indicates the mode of rating the value of such an appointment for financial purposes.

The pay of a progressive appointment is, according to the definition in Section 4 of the Code, the pay which any particular officer would receive monthly if he held the appointment substantively.

Under Section 37 (a) of the Acting Allowance Code, the acting allowance of an officer acting in a progressive appointment is reckoned, from time to time, upon the pay which he would, from time to time, receive if during his whole tenure of the appointment, or of some similar appointment, he had held the appointment substantively and continuously. This rule is, of course, subject to the conditions in Section 5 of the Code; but it should be understood that, in regulating the salary of such an officer, the pay of the appointment as defined in Section 4, and not the value of the appointment, according to the calculation in Section 34 (a), should be taken into account.
