To the Secretary to Government
Madras Public Works Department
London 20 January 1881

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter dated 17 September last and to request that I may be informed of the decision of Government on my claims to Pension and Bonus

I beg to draw your attention to the fact that it is now some months since I retired from the Service on the understanding that my claims would be fairly considered

I have the honor to be
