Sir

I have the honor to inform you that on receipt of G. O. No. 2397 W dated 10th October 1880. sanctioning the entertainment of 2 temporary clerks for the verification of old records for 3 months, I considered it advisable to employ men who had more experience in arranging records than to engage fresh men.

2 For the post of No 25 I appointed A. Srinivasarao who was exempted from passing the H. C. L. examination vide G. O. No. 321 dated 29th May 1879.

3 For the other post of No 20, I appointed a man named V. Ramakrishnaiah who was lately employed as Taluk Writer in the Kurnool District and who retired from the service in February 1880 on an Invalid Pension. No orders of Government were passed on his application till 17th of December 1880 when he was granted
