Circulated in your endorsement
No. 617.
17. 3. 81., Promoting Mr. Dorman to Assist Eng 2nd grade, and placing him immediately below me, I have the honour to bring to your notice that, as Mr

Ford's and my appointments are both dated September 23. 1879, and as our service for promotion

Furlough, etc. counts from that date -

following 10
years.

date, Mr. Ford and not Mr Dorman comes directly below me in the gradation list, Mr. Ford's name having been placed between mine and that of Mr. Dorman in order of merit in the results of the final examinations at the Royal Indian Engineering College in 1879.

I have the honour to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant.

P. W. DEPARTMENT.

Read the following:—

From the Superintending Engineer 3rd Circle No 2606 S. J. d/30th March 1881.

FOR ORDERS.

It is really Mr.
 Goord and not Mr.
 Dorman or Mr. Hanson whose name has been wrongly placed
 in the graduation list.
 Mr. Goord came to India in 1879 to undergo his years practical training, and
 was / apparently by oversight / placed
 above Messrs Boyle
 — Hanson who came out in the following
 years.

 MA

2. These officers
who underwent their
years practical training in England are, if Mr. Hanson's statement is correct senior
to Mr. Foord, whose name should come
next to that of Mr.
Hanson

3. We have however
no means of knowing where Mr. Foord's place really is, as he was originally posted to Bengal and afterwards transferred
to Madras, and his name does not appear
in the list sent here
from England -

4. It is suggested
that

that the Secretary of State be asked as to where Mr. Foord's
name should come

to Mr A. M. Ford, Assistant Engineer on our Establishment, in the order of merit, in the results of the final examination at the Royal Indian Engineering College in 1879.

2. Mr Ford came to India in 1879 to undergo his year's practical training and was (apparently by oversight) placed above the Officers named in the margin, who came out in the following year.
It has now been brought to our notice that these
