Read the following:—

From the Supt^g of Works Godavari N^o—
of 28th Sept^r 1881.

Order thereon 5th November 1881 N^o 2743 W.

The Hon^{ble} the Governor in Council would certainly deprecate the abandonment of the works at Dummagudim, which cost so much to execute, and orders the adoption of the following measures as a temporary expedient for ensuring the efficient execution of what is immediately essential for their conservancy and good order.

(1) The Chief Engineer P. W. Dept^g will select a thoroughly reliable subordinate and place him in charge of the works as a special sub division.

(2) The man so selected will be granted the usual Upper Godavari allowances, as laid down in G.O. N^o 2363 of 6th Sept 76. viz 50 per cent on ordinary pay and allowances.
