ORDER THEREON, 8th December 1881, No. 1327.

P. Ramasawmi Mudali having been permanently re-employed in the public service the bonus and pension granted in G.O. of 5th February 1881, No. 117, cannot be disbursed to him as ruled by the Government of India in their late Resolution, dated 24th August 1881, Nos. 1115 and 1134-G.

2. If the effect of this rule is found by the applicant to be disadvantageous to himself he will be permitted (since the rule came into force after his special pension and bonus were granted) to decide whether he will now remain in the Government service or take the pension and bonus already granted him, but his decision must be made forthwith, or else his present and past service will become pensionable only under the ordinary rules.
